Camp Wood.
The 13th annual reunion of the Van Buren county battalion, G. A. R., will be held at Bangor Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 20, 21 and 22.
No efforts will be spared to make this the most enjoyable reunion held in the county for years. The grove west of the village has been secured, where there is good shade and plenty of water.
Hay and straw will be furnished free, but posts will be expected to furnish their own tents and provisions. Rousing camp fires will be held each evening.
On Thursday, at two o'clock, Judge R. R. Pealer, of Three Rivers, will deliver an address, to be followed by M. A. Merrifield, of Union City, Comrades D. B. of Berrien Springs, and Heckert, of Paw Paw. The South Haven cornet band and drum corps will be in attendance. The speaking will be interspersed with vocal music and music by the bands. All camps of Sons of Veterans in the state are cordially invited to be present.

They Killed Song Birds.
Roscoe Welch, of Bloomingdale, and William Culver, of Columbia, have been doing a land-office business for some time past in the sparrow hunting business, and their greed for gain caused serious defects of vision when on their hunting excursions, and larks, blackbirds, bluebirds, robins, thrushes and other song birds were slaughtered to swell the contents of their game bags and, incidentally, their wallets with the people's cash. Bounty orders aggregating nearly or quite one hundred dollars were drawn on the county treasurer by the township clerks of Bloomingdale and Waverly, in favor of the enterprising hunters, and paid.
Such phenomenal yields of sparrow heads from the back districts attracted the attention of the authorities and led to investigation and the arrest of Welch and Culver. They were before Justice Mason last Friday and, on their plea of guilty, were fined Welch $30 and costs —a total of $42—and Culver $35. Warrants are out for other members of the gang, and they, too, will be called upon to disgorge some of their ill-gotten gain.

The Pulpit and the Stage.
Rev. F. M. Shront, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel my duty to let what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 20 lbs. in weight."
Arthur Love, Manager Love's Famous Folk Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am convinced Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousands of friends is to urge them to try it. Free trial bottles at Dr. J. D. Hamilton's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00."

A Clergyman Canned.
Some seventy-five or eighty of the friends of Rev. H. A. and Mrs. Pallister made an unannounced and unceremonious visit to them on Friday evening last. The Elder and his family were engaged in a quiet game of croquet in the yard—the Elder in his shirt-sleeves and the ladies in their "Mother Hubbards"—all in blissful ignorance of the approaching cyclonic visitation.
But, as "a well-ordered household is never taken by surprise," the family was soon in the parlors, staring away as best they might the human aggregation swooping down upon them.
But some of the ladies didn't propose to be "stowed away" to any great extent, but, instead, made forays into the china cupboards and linen closets, and soon the tables were spread and heavily laden with the rich and toothsome viands contained in innumerable baskets and hampers which the visitors had brought with them.

"Twas a jolly party, and the zeal which characterized the discussion of the culinary product evinced the fact that the appetites of the visitors had been put in rigid training for this particular event. But there is a limit to the capacity of all vessels, and the human stomach is not an exception, so there were many baskets left for future reference.

The tables cleared away, and the "business" of the occasion is put on tap.
Approaching Mrs. Pallister, O. W.
Rowland, in a well-worded little speech, presented her a dozen coin silver teaspoons, properly engraved, with the compliments of the ladies of the Christian church. For a moment the hostess was staggered, but only for a moment, when she rallied and responded in feeling terms—thanking as best she could her generous friends for the gift, which she should highly prize, not alone for its intrinsic value, but from the source whence it came.

And now the genial Elder was to get his dose, and this had been decreed by the members of Broadhead Post, G. A.
R., and consisted of an elegant ebony cane, gold mounted, bearing the following inscription: "Presented to Rev. H.
A. Pallister, by Broadhead Post G. A. R., Paw Paw, Mich., Aug. 8, 1890." Accompanying the cane was a purse of money—the "overflow" of the fund contributed by the boys for the purchase of the cane.

Elder Pallister is a quick thinker and a ready talker, but both these gifts had deserted him at a critical moment, and "My friends, I have no words in which to clothe my thankfulness" was all the reverend gentleman could articulate.

Mr. Pallister was not in this country during the late war and of course is not a member of the G. A. R., but his sympathies have always been with us and he has never let an opportunity pass unheeded to render kind and friendly offices to the organization. Hence this action on their part.

As is well known, Mr. Pallister preaches his farewell sermon in the Christian church next Sunday morning and in a few days thereafter will leave with his family for Aurora, Nebraska, a town of some 4,000 or 5,000 inhabitants, where he has accepted a call to preach.
The best wishes of our entire population go with these excellent people.

The Farmers at Hartford.
The farmers' picnic at Hartford, on the 6th and 7th, under the auspices of the County Grange, was a decided success in every particular. The programme was carried out, with many additions. H. M. Olney, president of the village, and W. R. Sirrine, master of the county grange, being absent, the address of welcome was made by L. H.
Titus, of Hartford, and responded to by Hon. J. J. Woodman.

The address of Governor Luce was able, earnest and practical, and was received with avid satisfaction by the large and enthusiastic audience.
The evening meeting was made interesting with short speeches, essays, recitations, music and singing.

Thomas Mars, Master of the State Grange, and E. N. Bates, of Allegan, addressed the meeting in the forenoon of the second day, and Col. J. H. Brigham, Master of the National Grange, made an able and stirring address upon legislation in the interest of agriculture, farmers' organizations and general topics, which was listened to with deep interest. He was followed by Judge J. G. Ramsdell, of Traverse City, in a clear and logical address on the currency question and silver coinage.

All the exercises were interspersed with recitations, music and singing.
The Paw Paw glau club, composed of Bruce Cummings, G. E. Gilman, Chas.
H. Butler and C. W. Reynolds, with Miss Grace Woodman, as organist, added much to the life and interest of the occasion. Their selections were all particularly fine and well rendered, eliciting hearty applause and frequent encore. The good citizens of Hartford showed much interest, and their hospitality was appreciated by the visitors.

BAY WILKES,

A worthy son of the mighty George Wilkes, the greatest sire the world has ever known, having over seventy (70) with records from 2:13 to 2:30, and in the standard nine years. Bay Wilkes never made a season in the stud until the fall of 1885; hence, his colts are but 3 years old, and all of them are showing wonderful action and speed. A few of his colts, last season, trotted in from 2:24 to 2:45, when he was three years old. They are nearly all Bays, are large, rangy fellows; no "outs" about them, as they are all sound.

BAY WILKES is regarded as one of the very best sires of the great George Wilkes. Bay Wilkes is as good a sire as stands in Michigan, and will make one more season (1890) at the low price of $25.00. Mare not proving in foal in 1890 can be returned free in 1891. Will stand in Paw Paw. No horse has ever stood in Michigan that can show a better lot of colts than Bay Wilkes can, and as soon as his colts are old enough and commence to drop into the 30 class, his service fee will not be less than from $100 to $200, and this will not be later than 1891.
THOS. WELCH.

VAN BUREN WILKES,

Sired by Young Wilkes, dam by old Niget Hawk, grand dam by old Blue Bell. This colt is the best grandson of the mighty George Wilkes I have ever seen. He is a born trotter, from the ground up.
You saw him trot at our Fair last fall a race every day, winning them all without making an effort and getting a record of 2:44, and showing, on our track, better than 2:28 in his three-year-old form. I place him, before fall, to trot as fast as any stallion in the State. I will allow him to serve a few mares at $25.00 the season (1890). Mare not proving in foal can be returned free in 1891. After June 15th he will go into training, and you will see him trot in 2:20 or better this year. No man has two (2) better Wilkes stallions than I have in Van Wilkes and Van Buren Wilkes, and their services for almost a year. Will stand in same barn with Bay Wilkes, in Paw Paw, Mich.
